

XM radio provides important, on demand traffic and weather information, in addition to a much more attractive music format to Broadcast Radio. I am very much in favor of the FCC providing a choice to the American Public, rather than setting limitations to the services available. I oppose the restrictions proposed under NAB's petition 04-160.